

Dr. Tiffany Mack Daniels is a tenacious, successful Kentucky entrepreneur. Dr. Daniels is owner and operator of Chiropractic Care of Lexington and has been in active chiropractic practice for more than twenty years. A native of Darlington, South Carolina, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from The University of South Carolina. Later, she received a Doctorate of Chiropractic from Life Chiropractic University in Marietta, Georgia.

Dr. Daniels not only serves the community by providing healthcare, she also offers her time, talent and treasure through service on multiple boards to include: United Way of the Bluegrass-Women United Council, The Lyric Theatre and Cultural Arts Center, Blue Grass Community Foundation, and serves as Co-Chair of the Lexington Black Prosperity Initiative. One of Dr. Daniels' most notable accomplishments is being an owner and founding member of Living the Dream Stables' women's horse syndicate.

In addition to providing chiropractic care, Dr. Daniels is a Certified Chiropractic Insurance Consultant and Medical Compliance Specialist. She is also a member of the International Chiropractic Pediatric Association, and the Kentucky Chiropractic Association.

Dr. Daniels is married to Kentucky businessman and co-founder of Living the Dream Stables, Raymond Daniels. The couple resides in Lexington, KY with their two children, Evan and Alana.