7 NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 230.215 vests the Kentucky Horse Racing
8 Commission with plenary power to promulgate administrative regulations prescribing conditions
9 under which all legitimate horse racing and wagering thereon is conducted in the

17 frivolous and requires prescription of the factors leading to such a determination. KRS 230.370
18 authorizes the commission to promulgate any reasonable and necessary administrative 19 regulation for the conduct of hearings before it.

20 Section 1. Stewards' and Judges' Hearings.

1 (1) A stewards' or judge's hearing, as applicable, shall be conducted by a state steward or a
2 state judge unless waived in writing by the party charged with the violation.

3 (2) At least two (2) stewards or judges must be present at all times during the hearing. All

5 shall be made by all three stewards or judges sitting in the matter.

7 shall be given written notice of the stewards' or judges' hearing, unless waived in writing by the 8 party charged.

10 no public announcement concerning a matter under investigation until the conclusion of the 11 hearing.

12 (5) A state steward or a state judge shall conduct the hearing in such a manner as to ascertain
13 and determine the substantial rights of the parties involved and shall not be bound by technical 14 rules of procedure and evidence.

15 (6) All testimony shall be given under oath and a record shall be kept, either by use of an 16 audio recorder or by court reporter's transcript. The party charged with the violation may,
17 however, waive the recording and the transcription of the testimony. The stewards or judges shall 18 not be required to receive testimony in cases where their ruling is based solely upon a review of 19 the video replay of a race.

20 (7) If, after the hearing, the stewards or judges find that a statute or an administrative 21 regulation has been violated, they shall promptly issue a written ruling setting forth the:

22 (a) Full name of every person charged with the violation;

1 (b) Identification of licensees charged with the violation;

14 committed during the race; or

15 (b) Findings of fact as to all matters occurring during and incident to the running of a race.

17 be made within ten (10) days after the order or ruling is issued in writing on the "Notice of Appeal,"
18 KHRC 9-010-1.

19 (11) An application to the executive director for a stay of a stewards' or judges' order or ruling
20 shall be made in writing within ten (10) days after the order or ruling is issued on the "Request for 21 Stay Pending Appeal", KHRC 9-010-2.

1 Section 2. Frivolous Appeals. The commission may determine that an appeal of a stewards'
2 or judges' order or ruling, or any other administrative appeal to the racing commission by a
3 licensee or other person participating in Kentucky horse racing, is frivolous. An appeal shall be 4 presumed to be frivolous if:

5 (1) The applicant seeks review by the commission but fails, without good cause, to appear
6 for proceedings;

7 (2) The applicant attends the commission hearing but fails, without good cause, to offer
8 evidence to support the application for review; or
