

Alan J. Leavitt

Alan Leavitt is the President and General Manager of Walnut Hall Ltd., Lexington, Ky., which is owned by his wife, Meg Jewett. A graduate of Andover and Harvard, he has been in the horse business for almost 50 years. Mr. Leavitt is the Director of the Hambletonian Society and the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium; President of the Kentucky Standardbred Breeders Association; a member of the Kentucky Equine Drug Research Council; and the Chairman of the 6th District of the United States Trotting Association. Mr. Leavitt is a recipient of the U.S. Harness Writers' Proximity Award; their President's Award; the Kentucky Harness Horsemen's Association's Achievement Award; and twice named USTA Breeder of the Year. He is associated with a number of top horses including Mack Lobell, whom he bred, and the immortal Speedy Crown, whom he developed and managed throughout his breeding career.