

James Gatewood Bell, Jr.

Bell is a graduate of the University of Kentucky graduating with honors and a degree in finance. He is President of Cromwell Bloodstock, a Lexington based consulting operation specializing in auction representation, matings/seasons and shares, appraisals, racehorse and breeding portfolio management and partnerships. Among his successes is the discovery of Undrafted, millionaire and G1 Royal Ascot winner. Bell, born and raised in the thoroughbred business, has previously worked for Nicoma Bloodstock and trainer Kieran McLaughlin.