Description and Information about Amended Administrative Regulation Filed on November 5, 2021

The amended administrative regulation was filed on November 5, 2021:

810 KAR 6:001. Definitions for 810 KAR Chapter 6.

A. This amended administrative regulation was filed with the Legislative Research Commission ("LRC") on November 5, 2021.

B. Summary of Administrative Regulation: Due to the emergent and fluid nature of the technology utilized to offer pari-mutuel wagering, the commission regularly proposes amendments to relevant regulations to stay current with terms used throughout the industry. This proposed amendment updates the regulation to stay current with industry terminology and concepts. Specifically, this amendment updates the definitions of "added money," "equipment," and "terminal." Additionally, the following terms and benchmarks are defined to aid in developing conditions related to the integrity of pari-mutuel wagering and horse racing: "communications technology;" "control program;" "entertaining award display" or "interactive terminal display;" "interactive terminal" or "HHR terminal;" and "internal controls," "minimum internal standards," or "control standards."
