

Jason Chinn, a lifelong resident of Beaver Dam, Kentucky, is the Executive Director of both the Ohio County Economic Development Authority (OCEDA) and the Green River Regional Industrial Development Authority (GRIDDA). He is a graduate of Western Kentucky University, where he earned degrees in Psychology and Government in 1995.

Mr. Chinn served the community for over two decades as Ohio County's Property Valuation Administrator before retiring from that position in 2022.

In addition to his professional work, Jason is the father of two children, Lennon and Preston. He has a lifelong passion for the American Quarter Horse industry and has raised and raced horses for both the racetrack and the barrel arena. He currently serves as a board member of the Kentucky Quarter Horse Racing Association, reflecting his dedication to the growth and preservation of the sport.