

Ken Jackson

Ken graduated from both the University of Kentucky and the University of Louisville, with degrees in Finance and Law, Juris Doctor. Ken was formerly a partner with the firm of Greenebaum, Doll & McDonald, specializing in Equine Law and Litigation. Currently, Ken has a private practice in Lexington. Ken also is an owner/partner of Kentuckiana Farms and Lexington Selected Sales Company. He was an original member of the United States Trotting Association Blue Ribbon Breeders Committee, a former Chairman of the Executive Committee of American Championship Harness Series and is a Founding Member of the North American Standardbred Breeders Association. Ken currently serves as a member of the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission, the Bluegrass Sports Commission, the TOBA Sales Integrity Task Force and represents the Standardbred breeders in connection with the Kentucky Standardbred Development Fund and Kentucky Standardbred Breeders' Incentive Fund.